God so loved the world that he gave his only Son

The Most Holy Trinity
June 11, 2017
La Santísima Trinidad
Happy Trinity Sunday! Today we celebrate the mystery of our belief in three divine persons in One God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Each person in the Trinity goes by many titles. We explored the titles of both the Father and the Son earlier in the year when exploring the creed. Now I would like to point out the titles of the Holy Spirit.

Holy Spirit is the formal title of the third person of the Trinity. During the Last Supper, Jesus reveals the Holy Spirit as “Paraclete” and “Spirit of Truth” (John chapter 19). Paraclete is a Greek word that literally means “he who is called to one’s side” (CCC692). It is often translated as “advocate” or “consoler.” He is someone who we can call to our side to help us during our trial against temptation. He also reminds us of the truth.

Every day we face trials against temptation. We were sealed with the Holy Spirit in Confirmation. When we say that we believe in the Holy Spirit we believe that He wants to be part of your life. Don’t be afraid to call on the Holy Spirit to act as your advocate and to guide you to the truth. He will help you to overcome temptation when sin creeps up. He will also help you to know the truth so that you can make important decisions in your life. Come Holy Spirit, Come!

El Espíritu Santo en la Trinidad

Feliz Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad! Hoy celebramos el misterio de nuestra creencia en tres personas divinas en un solo Dios: Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. A cada persona en la Trinidad se le conoce por muchos títulos. Exploramos los títulos del Padre y del Hijo a principios del año cuando estudiamos el credo. Ahora quisiera resaltar los títulos del Espíritu Santo.

El Espíritu Santo es el título formal de la tercera persona de la Trinidad. Durante la Última Cena, Jesús revela al Espíritu Santo como "Paráclito" y "Espíritu de Verdad" (Juan capítulo 19). Paráclito es una palabra griega que literalmente significa "el que es llamado a un lado" (CCC692). A menudo se traduce como "abogado" o "consolador". Él es alguien que podemos llamar a nuestro lado para ayudarnos durante nuestras pruebas contra la tentación. También nos recuerda la verdad.

Todos los días nos enfrentamos a pruebas contra la tentación. Fuimos sellados con el Espíritu Santo en la Confirmación. Cuando decimos que creemos en el Espíritu Santo creemos que Él quiere ser parte de tú vida. No tengas miedo de invocar al Espíritu Santo para que actúe como tu abogado y te guíe a la verdad. Él te ayudará a superar la tentación cuando el pecado se presente. También le ayudará a conocer la verdad para que pueda tomar decisiones importantes en tú vida. Ven Espíritu Santo, ¡Ven!

FROM THE ASHES

Distributed by National Geographic Documentary Films, will be presented at Holy Trinity parish on June 20 at 7 pm in the Fireside room. The film captures Americans in communities across the country as they wrestle with the legacy of the coal industry, and what its future should be. From Appalachia to the West’s Powder River Basin, the film goes beyond the rhetoric of the “war on coal” to present compelling and often-heartbreaking stories about what is at stake for our economy, health and climate.

The film invites audiences to learn more about an industry on the edge and what it means for their lives. Discussion and refreshments following the film. Film length 80 minutes.

Quo Vadis Day

"Quo Vadis" is the Latin phrase for "Where are you going?" Legend tells us that Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. And we know where Jesus went in response to His Father's will. Quo Vadis Days is a 4-day camp for young Catholic men to learn more about the priesthood, to deepen their faith, and to better discern God's call in their lives.
